

- a. I would use the ISBN because each ISBN is unique and can only point to one book not more but the other ones like author or year could point to more than one book.
- b. I would use player's name because it's unique but uniform number , team and position could point to more than one
- c. Definitely model number because of the same reason as the two problems above , it's much more unique than the other options.
- d. Course ID because it's also more unique than the other options.
